Make a paper garland
showcasing the most important people in your life.

1. Cut out the left side of the sheet.
2. Fold accordion style at the fold marks.
3. Ask an adult to help you cut out the figure along the dotted line.
4. Unfold and draw the most important people in your life other than your parents: your granddad, your aunt, a family friend, etc.
5. Use the following pages as required.

The important people in your child's life help him grow.
Has someone played an important part in your childhood?
